*Legal Fees

The Union may (entirely at its discretion) support members by funding legal cases, in whole or in part, depending on the circumstances of the case and the significance of the matter to the member, the game or the aims and purposes of the union.

The Union may also provide representation and assistance for internal matters at the Club where requested.

If the member chooses to proceed with a legal case where union funding is not sanctioned, then the member will be liable for costs personally in the usual way, but the union can assist by arranging discounts for members referred via these member services.

The union has access to several different law firms, with various specialisms and skill sets, these connections have been developed over many years to meet the ongoing needs of players in the game today.
